

Open Call

Artist Residency in URRRA (URRA Cerrito), City of Buenos Aires, Argentina (4th Edition)

Period: 1 October - 22 December 2024

Application Deadline: 21 July 2024, 23:59

The Department of Arts and Culture of the City of Munich, the Organisation URRRA in Buenos Aires (VERIA Foundation), Fundación Santander Argentina via Mecenazgo Cultural de la Ciudad Autónoma de Buenos Aires, Goethe-Institut Buenos Aires and Instituto Cervantes Munich offer a Munich artist a three month stay as an artist-in-residence in URRRA Buenos Aires (www.urraurra.com). This residency, in its fourth edition, is part of an exchange program between Artist in Residence Munich (AIR-M) and URRRA, whereby an artist from Buenos Aires also undertakes an artist-in-residency program at the Villa Waldberta.

Who can apply?

Professional visual artists from Munich (incl. S-Bahn area), currently living and working in Munich. There is no age limit, but this residency is not thought for students or artists that are just starting their professional careers.

We offer

- Reimbursement of travel costs (economy class) Munich – Buenos Aires – Munich.
- Accommodation in a private room with private bathroom and a shared working space in URRRA Cerrito. URRRA Cerrito is located in a first-floor flat in the centre of the city and offers a living and working space for up to three artists. There is a main working space, subdivided according to the needs of each resident and a separate studio with general tools and technical equipment. There is a shared kitchen and dining room. The flat also has a toilet for visitors, a laundry room and two covered patios that can be for work and for storage.
- A monthly grant of 800 €.
- A formal programme that includes: an audiovisual presentation at the beginning of the residency, and an Open Studio or similar public presentation at the end of the residency.
- An informal programme of visits and activities to interact and to know the city and its art scene, organized according to the resident's needs and interests, and the local cultural

- agenda.
- A minimum of two studio visits with invited curators or other professionals.
- General assistance.

Applications

Please send your application as a single PDF-File (max. 10 MB) to:
l.sanchez-serrano@muenchen.de

We require the following documents in English:

- Cover sheet with the following information: Name and surname, date of birth, place of birth, passport number, current address, e-mail, telephone number, website if there is one, plus confirmation that you will be available from 1 October to 22 December 2024.
- Motivation letter with first project or research ideas.
- Statement about your artistic practice.
- Curriculum vitae.
- Portfolio.

Selection process

A committee of representatives from the Department of Arts and Culture of the City of Munich, the Organisation URRRA, Goethe-Institut and Instituto Cervantes Munich will select three applications and send them to URRRA which will take the final decision together with an invited local curator. We will inform you about the decision by 5 August 2024.

Applicants commitments and obligations:

- To participate in the URRRA Residency during the appointed months
- To participate on the activities of the project according to its schedule
- To engage with URRRA's environment and Buenos Aires' artistic and cultural context
- To name both entities of this partnership (AIR-M and URRRA) when mentioning the program, and when possible, the other entities involved: Goethe-Institut Buenos Aires, Fundación Santander Argentina via Mecenazgo Cultural de la Ciudad Autónoma de Buenos Aires, Instituto Cervantes Munich
- To be responsible of your travel and medical insurance during the journey and stay in Buenos Aires
- To have a valid passport to be able to travel
- To give back a written report in English of the experience to the Department of Arts and Culture of the City of Munich and to URRRA

It is important to mention that this residency is to be undertaken individually (not for partners or families). Residents do not need to speak Spanish but should be aware that not everyone in Buenos Aires speaks English or German. The participation in the Open Call implies the acceptance of the above conditions offered by the project.
